

Nominate a professor, adjunct professor or lecturer for INTA's 2016 Pattishall Medal for Teaching Excellence

This award, in honor of Beverly W. Pattishall, recognizes educators in the business and legal fields for outstanding instruction in the trademark and trade identity field. Beverly W. Pattishall was a long-time partner in the firm of Pattishall, McAuliffe, Newbury, Hilliard & Geraldson LLP.

The Pattishall Medal for Teaching Excellence is presented every four years to the university or graduate school academic nominated by his/her students or peers who best exemplifies the qualities of excellence and innovation in teaching subjects related to trademarks and trade identity.

The award recipient will be announced in July and will receive US $2,500, along with an invitation to attend INTA's Leadership Meeting in Florida in November.

Nominate a professor, adjunct professor or lecturer at a college, university, graduate school or law school today! Nominations will be accepted until April 29, 2016.
