

2012 Pattishall Medal for Teaching Excellence Winner Announced

March 13, 2012

The 2012 Pattishall Medal for Teaching Excellence has been awarded to David Vaver, Emeritus Fellow of St Peter's College and former Director of the Oxford Intellectual Property Research Centre. He was a member of the UK Intellectual Property Advisory Committee, and chaired the University's IP Advisory Group until he retired at the end of 2007. Vaver will be recognized at the INTA Gala, in Washington, DC, on May 5, 2012.

The Pattishall Medal for Teaching Excellence was established in tribute to our partner, Beverly W. Pattishall, to recognize educators in the business and legal fields for outstanding instruction in the trademark and trade identity field. Funding for the Pattishall Medal is provided by Pattishall, McAuliffe, Newbury, Hilliard & Geraldson LLP.
