

ASHLY BOESCHE RECEIVES DISTINGUISHED ALUMNA AWARD

May, 2016

Congratulations to Pattishall Partner, Ashly Boesche, on receiving the 2016 Distinguished Alumna Award from the Chicago-Kent College of Law Intellectual Property Law Society. Ashly's nomination received enthusiastic support from students and faculty alike. The IPLS Alumni Awards reception was held on Wednesday, April 27, 2016.

Ashly is a 2004 graduate of Chicago-Kent and has been active with the law school ever since. In addition to supporting students as a mentor, she has been an Adjunct Professor since 2013, teaching a course on trademarks and unfair competition. She also serves as the Chicago-Kent team coach for students competing in the International Trademark Association's annual Saul Lefkowitz Moot Court Competition. In her debut year as a moot court coach, 2014, one of Ashly's teams won First Place and Best Brief at the Midwest Regional Competition and Fourth Place at the National Championship. Ashly successfully led the 2016 Chicago-Kent moot court team to First Place and Best Brief at the Midwest Regional Competition and Second Place finishes in overall performance, brief and oral argument at the National Championship held at the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals in Washington, DC.
