

Chicago Trademark Lawyers Comment on New Domain Name Scheme

December 18, 2008

The international body governing domain names has proposed sweeping changes to the domain name system. These developments create dramatic risks and opportunities for brand owners and Internet businesses. Trademark attorneys at Pattishall have followed this plan for the start and recently submitted formal comments to ICANN. For more information see, our Executive Summary and Letter to ICANN.

