

Pattishall Partners Author New Essential Books

June 8, 2008

Pattishall, McAuliffe, Newbury, Hilliard & Geraldson LLP is proud to announce the recent release of the Seventh Edition of the widely used law school coursebook Trademarks and Unfair Competition, authored by David C. Hilliard, Joseph N. Welch II and Uli Widmaier. Also just released is the Fourth Edition of the highly regarded Trademarks and Unfair Competition Deskbook for practitioners, authored by David C. Hilliard, Joseph N. Welch II and Janet A. Marvel. Both books are published by LexisNexis and are available at bookstores as well as online at www.lexisnexis.com.

Pattishall, McAuliffe is also proud to announce the release of Alternative Dispute Resolution: An Essential Competency for Lawyers, the most recent book authored by Mark V.B. Partridge. Mark's book is published by Oxford University Press and is available both from the publisher and at www.amazon.com.

At Pattishall, we differ from other law firms not only because of our litigation and counseling expertise relating to trademarks, unfair competition, copyrights, product design, trade secrets, the Internet, advertising and design patents, but also because so many of our partners author the leading books on these topics.
